April 9-10, 2010
University Center
Kent State University Stark

The Challenges of the 21st Century Education

In an era that promises to be a watershed for higher education in Ohio, and for regional campuses in particular, there is no better way to share insights and develop collegial relationships than by participating in this year's AURCO Conference. Faculty, staff, and students will find many opportunities to appreciate both the diversity of ideas and commonality of interests at Ohio's regional campuses.

Multiple Presentation Tracks Will Be Offered

- Pedagogical Strategies, Issues, & Opportunities
- Uses of Technology
- Recruitment, Retention, and Student Services
- Service and Community Based Learning
- Special Initiatives
- AURCO Student Paper and Poster Competition Click here to learn more about submitting a proposal and registering for the conference. Student submissions are due February 20, 2010
